who expressed appreciation to Manny from all his colleagues and wished him years of success. "Hopefully you'll never leave the Public Works Department", Sweet said. He was accompanied on his trip to Mattapoisett from Dedham with a fellow member and friend of Manny, James Miller.

Sweet said the purpose of the award is to publicly recognize the public employee of the year (1984) as a prestigious member of the New England Chapter. The annual recognition began in 1969. He said the award is very competitive among the over 800 members.

Sweet related, "You (Selectmen) know much more about Manny than we do, and when he desires to retire, his will be a 'big pair of shoes' to fill." He continued, "We think a lot of Manny. He is one of the few who initiates ideas, helps design them, then builds and maintains what he builds."

Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta, Selectman James Huntoon and Selectman Frank Suzan offered their enthusiastic congratulations as well as those from the Town Hall employees and the media persons.

In other business, Selectmen:

APPOINTED William Armitage of 151 North Street as an alternate on the Board of Appeals to fill the unexpired term of Elizabeth Atkinson. He will serve until April 30, 1988.

AGREED TO PAY the annual dues of $570. to the Massachusetts Municipal Association. Selectman Huntoon commented, "we get our money's worth from the association."

The herring committee members voted 2 to 1 not to lease herring rights and voted 2 to 1 that if this year's catch is poor, the run will be closed down for two years.

Board of Appeals

DECISION FAVORABLE ON OFFICE COMPLEX ON RTE. 6

A decision handed down January 30th by the Zoning Board of Appeals will allow the proposed buyer John E. Conway, Jr. to make a total of six business units, the three existing units and three additional units on the property at 6-8 County Road (Route 6). Part of the property presently houses Debbie's Hair Salon, B & C Floor Covering and Constance J. Tobia and Associates. Additionally, the property, formerly known as the Slye Foxe Restaurant, will be joined with the existing building.

John Conway, a resident of 182 Columbia Road, Hanover, is the proposed owner. The request, made at a hearing on December 20th, was allowed with the following conditions:

1). Off-street parking shall be designed to prevent the necessity of any vehicle backing onto Route 6. Five other conditions regarding parking spaces were also outlined and may be obtained from the Town Clerk's Office.

2). Screening shall be provided by a stock-

Corinne Crupi of New Bedford. Athletic Director Joao Rodrigues, giving a hand to the music boosters, conducted the drawing during the half-time of the game with Bourne with the help of a young volunteer from the stands.

Four hundred fifty four tickets, representing a total of $4540.00, were sold prior to the first drawing. All of the proceeds will be used to help provide new uniforms for the swelling ranks of musicians in the ORR bands. Volunteers among music parents will continue in the coming weeks to ask support for the program throughout the tri-town area. A name is drawn each week for ten weeks to win $50.00 each week and a grand prize winner of $500. will be drawn at the conclusion. A tax deductible donation of $10.00 buys a ticket good for the drawings. Payments may be made weekly.

The volunteers are pleased with the response during the first week; the enthusiasm of the community encourages us to believe that all of our musicians can be in uniform before long.

Mattapoisett Recreation

These seats are being added to maintain good communication between the Recreation Commission and the coaches and other support personnel. One new member will be selected from fall and winter sports, the other from spring and summer programs.

PAINTINGS OF JEANNE ZEPHIR AT ART CENTER

For many years Jeanne Zephir built a respected reputation in her area as a landscape artist. A lover of nature, many of the artist's paintings were stimulated by the beauty of New England, its mountains, coastlines, trees and flowers. Many successful works were memory paintings that simplified subject matter and allowed her feelings to be painted on the canvas.

Among Zephir's artistic credits are many one-woman exhibits in Worcester, Boston, Marlboro, Fitchburg and Petersham. In 1981 she took a giant step toward broadening the scope of that reputation with her first showing in a juried national show in Washington, D.C. Zephir also taught for many years at the Fitchburg Art Museum. Quoting George French, art critic for the Worcester Telegram and Evening Gazette, "There is a feeling in her paintings of enthusiasm and the excitement of continuing rediscovery.... in her color world is the predominance of light airy colors."

During a recent interview she was asked "Why after she has been successful with her painting of florals and landscapes does she feel a need to paint factories?" She answers, "I feel a need to do more works studying the concrete. My paintings are a road map of my life."

That statement reflects the optimism of a painter who only two years ago found herself facing a serious concern -- losing her eyesight. She had resisted the thought of major surgery but time was running out and she underwent surgery in both eyes in 1983. When she began working again she did two paintings of her impressions of Boston from her room at the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary. The colors were contemplative and changed, the canvases large. City scenes had become the landscape after weekly trips into Boston. She studied her own area and saw factories that dominate the Central Massachusetts landscape along with the familiar benevolent maple trees. "You are a different person after such an experience. Paintings are evolving from a different me."

For this exhibit at the Marion Art Center, Jeanne Zephir has completed a group of paintings executed in 1983-84. This exhibition will be open to the public from Friday, February 15th, until Wednesday, March 6th. Gallery hours are Wednesday through Saturday from one to four p.m.

Letter to the Editor

This is the week of Lincoln's birthday. One hundred seventy-five years ago this week one of the truly great men of this world was born in a log cabin in Hardin County, Kentucky.

This man became our sixteenth President at the time of our greatest national crisis. A tender-hearted man, he was called upon to bear the burden of decision making, involving the lives of tens of thousands of the cream of northern manhood. He carried this burden through four long years of the most tragic and bloody war ever fought on this continent.

He was let down by friends; he was called a buffoon, a baboon, a country lout; he was threatened by an underground impeachment group; his wife's loyalty to the north was challenged; he was buffeted on the one hand by northern liberals, and on the other hand by border state conservatives; he was under constant danger of assassination, and narrowly escaped it at least twice. Chided because of his story-telling on serious occasions, he told his critics that with the burden that he was bearing, it was all that kept him on an even keel. He frequently made his point by telling a story -- sometimes these stories seemed like the parables of the New Testament.

With very little formal education (our British cousins have declared) Lincoln wrote the purest prose ever written in the English language; in affirmation of this belief, they have caused to be inscribed on a wall of Brasenose College, Oxford Univerity, his letter to Mrs. Bixby of Massachusetts as an example of rare and purest English. Most Americans are familiar with Lincoln's great first and second inaugural addresses, and with his Gettysburg Address, but probably not as familiar with his letter to a Massachusetts mother who had borne the burden of losing five sons on the battlefield. This letter exemplifies his beautiful prose, his compassionate and understanding heart, with a clarity that is rarely matched. I quote:

"Dear Madam:

I have been shown in the files of the war department a statement of the Adjutant General of Massachusetts that you are the mother of five sons who have died gloriously on the field of battle. I feel how weak and fruitless must be any word of mine which should attempt to beguile you from the grief of a loss so overwhelming, but I cannot refrain from tendering you the consolation that may

I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom.

Over the past century and a quarter, hundreds of books on Lincoln have been written by able historians and biographers--and yet the mystery of this man remains, and always will. Truly, he is our greatest American!

Count on Us When You're Ready To Buy or Sell

When you're selecting a real estate company to help you buy or sell a home, the most important feature to look for is service. Most real estate firms can list your present home, show you new homes, and help you fill out the loan application. But we're the only firm in this area that's affiliated with Homes for All America™, and that difference can make a big difference to you.

As a member of Homes for All America, we're part of a national network of hundreds of real estate firms across the country — and we are the only firm in this area affiliated with Better Homes and Gardens® Real Estate Service.

Tobey Hospital

BENEFIT ART SHOW SUCCESSFUL

The sale of watercolor paintings displayed at the Rogers Gallery in Mattapoisett through the month of December realized a net profit of just over $5,000 for Tobey Hospital. The benefit, a huge success, was inspired by the artist, the Hospital's Orthopedic Surgeon, Dr. Charles C. Parsons. Dr. Parsons painted and generously donated 51 landscapes and seascapes for the showing.

December 8th marked the opening of the show with more than 350 art enthusiasts in attendance. Those invited included members of the Hospital's Medical and Administrative Staffs, the Board of Trustees and Corporators, and other friends. Public viewing of the artwork continued through the month. In addition to the sales of the paintings, further contributions were received from those unable to attend the opening of the show.

On behalf of Tobey Hospital, Administrator Charles S. Kinney expresses his gratitude to Dr. Parsons, the Rogers Gallery and all who contributed to Tobey by way of the Art Show.

Why cut rate heating oil is no bargain.

No service vs. full service

- Cut rate heating oil is usually COD service. The fuel is delivered, you pay for it on the spot and that's all you've got.
- We don't leave you with a load of fuel and wave "goodbye". Delivering heating oil to our regular customers is more like saying "hello".
- Our service starts with the best products available and continues all year long.
- Our reputation is important to us, so you can be sure the fuel we supply is a quality product you can trust.
- We offer credit and even-payment budget plans that make paying for a winter's heating easier.

- Our trained experts can provide the year-round preventive maintenance every heating system requires.
- We have service plans that will assure you of help when you need it, even in the dead of winter.
- You don't even have to call us to refill your tank, our automatic degree-day system makes sure you won't run out of fuel.
- Remember, when the fuel is "cut-rate", the service that backs it up is probably cut out.

Manhattan 85 at Stang

Get an organization together, any organization. When the subject of fund-raising comes up, a heavy cloud seems to come over the room. Memories of selling candy door to door - planning a dance and a snowstorm makes it impossible for anyone to get there. The car washes where it was either too cold or it rained all day.

Fund-raising is a necessity. Worthwhile causes need funding to operate. And finding volunteers is often a problem.

Not at Bishop Stang High School. Mention MANHATTAN, Stang's major fund-raiser, and eight hundred people enthusiastically jump at the chance to be a part of this annual event. How does a high school the size of Bishop Stang manage to attract so many volunteers? Well, besides the fact that parents, teachers and friends of Stang are truly committed to providing a religious community for high school students, Bishop Stang High School has made fund-raising fun! It's called MANHATTAN.

In the late 70's it became apparent that the school needed to generate additional funds to help keep down the cost of tuition. A group of parents organized MANHATTAN, where the school is transformed into fifteen nightclubs and the draw is live, professional entertainment. Ticketholders visit the different rooms and are entertained in grand style. Sing-along in the Irish Pub...clap your hands in the country and western room....snap your fingers to the sounds of the members of the BOURBON STREET JAZZ. Feel the rhythms of a Trinidadian Steel Band...So much to see and do...even a Silent Auction.

This year you'll enter the magic of MANHATTAN through the main gymdoors and be treated to entertainment within moments. It's new and exciting.

Chairpersons for this year's MANHATTAN 85 are Al and Delores Santos.

MANHATTAN 85 takes place two weekends in March: Friday, March 22 and Saturday, March 23; and again on Friday, March 29 and Saturday, March 30.

It's a tremendous undertaking; a lot of hard work; but there won't be a shortage of volunteers. This year 800 parents, teachers, alumni and friends of BISHOP STANG HIGH SCHOOL are already hard at work, The reason? MANHATTAN is a fun way to fund raise!

phone protocols; and one who fully understands the tremendous responsibility involved in taking charge of someone else's children.

More than 100 area students have successfully completed a Babysitter Training Course offered by Tobey Hospital since the program began in October of last year. Interest in the Course has been overwhelming and the students themselves have expressed great satisfaction.

"The Course is fantastic and every teen should go through the program if they plan to babysit," according to one participant's mother, Mrs. Linda Williams. On Christmas Eve her daughter, Wendy, was babysitting a neighbor's two small children, when the house filled with smoke. Foremost in Wendy's mind were the words of the Fireman who spoke at the course. "Do not try to find the source. Do not call the Fire Department from the house. Immediately take the children from the house and call the Fire Department from another location." Wendy did just that and all were kept safe from harm. Wendy and her sister, Wanda, have both completed the course at Tobey and encourage others to do the same.

Topics covered in the class include: Basic First Aid and Introduction to CPR, home safety as addressed by representatives of the Fire and Police Departments, Child Care Procedures and Stages of Child Development, Accident Prevention, Contracts and Ethics.

The next session will be held at the Tobey Homestead on Friday and Saturday, March 8th and 9th. The cost of materials is $10. and includes both 4 hour classes. Certificates for wallet and for framing are awarded upon successful completion. Registration forms may be obtained by calling the Department of Resource & Development at Tobey Hospital, 295-0880, extension 206.

funds for the restoration of the Statue of Liberty. Locally, the New Bedford Chapter is sponsoring this effort, with each member making her own contribution and contacting at least five non-members for donations.

The Statue of Liberty will be 100 years old in 1986 and a major undertaking is in progress to restore this majestic monument. The ravages of time, salt air and pollution have taken serious toll. Work is being done on the skeletal structure as well as the outside to insure the preservation of this great symbol of Freedom. It will take over two years to complete the restoration and cost a total of $45 million, according to the Statue of Liberty/Ellis Land Foundation. The rededication is scheduled for the Statue's birthday - October 28, 1986.

Both the Statue, built in France, and its pedestal, built in the United States, were funded by private citizens. The total restoration is being paid for in the same way. The DAR has chosen Valentine's Day as an ap-

Lloyd Center

CO-SPONSORSHIP OF SENEME

The Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies announces its co-sponsorship of the Southeastern New England Marine Educators (SENEME). SENEME is a local chapter of the National Marine Education Association. The Lloyd Center publishes the Nauplius, the quarterly publication of SENEME. Schooner, Inc. of New Haven, CT. is the other sponsor of the organization.

SENEME is a not-for-profit professional association of educators, researchers and other individuals interested in fostering marine and aquatic education. The goal of SENEME is to serve as a forum for educators to share ideas and resources with others. SENEME offers its members opportunities for continuing professional growth through workshops, seminars, conferences and a variety of special activities. In the past year, SENEME has sponsored several events including a showing of the film Narragansett Bay, a trip on the 65 foot R/V J.N. Carter and a Marine Awareness Day.

"SENEME fills a void left by the lack of an active Connecticut or Rhode Island chapter of the National Marine Education Association", says Sandra Ryack-Bell, School Pro-

"By merging the small, inactive Rhode Island/Connecticut chapters and incorporating teachers who live in Massachusetts but teach in Rhode Island or vice versa, a dynamic actively growing organization has been created. SENEME is only a year old and already has an active membership of over 50 members. SENEME should not, however, be confused with the Massachusetts Marine Educators (MME), the very strong and highly respected Massachusetts chapter of the National."

critics, Walter Terry, "is an enthralling, bewitching, riveting experience." The New York Times exclaimed that the Company presents "dancing with an exuberant commitment." And the San Francisco Chronicle wrote, "The Oakland Ballet is a jewel of the American Dance Scene."

Under Artistic Director Ronn Guidi, the 28-member company has earned an outstanding reputation for the presentation of innovative contemporary choreography and the preservation of balletic masterworks. "Our goal is to make and preserve dance history," states Guidi. Currently, the Company maintains an extensive touring schedule which brings them to national and international dance centers approximately four months of the year. The group's recent European tour included appearances in both France and Italy. In 1982 Oakland Ballet performed as the featured attraction at the acclaimed Spoleto Festival, U.S.A.

In their performance of Hansel and Gretel all the color and adventure of the classic come alive through Guidi's mesmerizing portrayal of the story. Astray in the Enchanted Forest, the youngsters tangle with sinister candy canes, are captured by the wicked witch, and narrowly escape the ovens.

For ticket reservations call the Zeiterion Theatre Box Office at 994-2900. Tickets are $16., $14. and $12.; senior/children, $10.

Zeiterion Membership Drive

In a press conference recently Joe Barry, Vice President of Merrill Lynch, announced the incorporation of the Zeiterion Theatre, Inc. - a new not-for-profit cultural organization. He announced the first priority of the newly formed Zeiterion Theatre, Inc. Board of Trustees will be an extensive Friends of the Zeiterion Theatre Membership Campaign scheduled to begin in early February.

The historically significant Zeiterion Theatre is in its third season of operation. Previously, WHALE (the Waterfront Area Historic League) whose purpose is to save and restore architecturally significant buildings in New Bedford, has been managing the Theatre under contract to the City of New Bedford. WHALE formed the Zeiterion Theatre Committee for that purpose.

Recently, the Zeiterion Theatre Committee voted to incorporate as the Zeiterion Theatre, Inc. and assume WHALE's management responsibilities. The Zeiterion Theatre Committee became the Board of Trustees for the new entity with Joe Barry as chairman. "As an established performing arts center, the Zeiterion Theatre has moved well beyond a 'restoration project'", stated Chairman Joe Barry. "We will be managing WHALE's contracted responsibilities, but more significantly we have now established an organization solely dedicated to running a vital, vibrant performing arts center.

"The formation of the Zeiterion Theatre, Inc. represents a tremendous achievement," continued Barry. "It also poses us with our greatest challenge - to firmly establish the proper financial mixture of support (business and individual contributions, government grants and ticket sales) to ensure continued success."

Robert A. Freedman, the Zeiterion's Executive Director, stated, "Across the nation performing arts centers the size and caliber of the Zeiterion rely on membership drives for financial support. Not total support by any means, just a stable portion of the financial pie. As a matter of fact, the Zeiterion is healthier than many organizations because a smaller percentage of the budget must come from contributed income.

In the past WHALE worked very hard to see that the Zeiterion remained afloat and was able to receive substantial private gifts from individuals in the community. The Zeiterion has proven itself as a valuable community resource and we must now turn to the community for support through our membership system."

The Membership Campaign will be headed by Membership Chairman Joe Barry. Two campaigns, one targeted at individuals and one targeted to businesses will each be co-chaired. Co-chairing the individual campaign are Donna Silverstein and Joan Brownhill. Co-chairing the business membership campaign are Sara Lawrence and John Bullard. "THE HISTORY OF GRAY'S MILL AND
THE CULTURE OF FLINT CORN"

A slide presentation on "The History of Gray's Mill and the Culture of Flint Corn" by Mr. Timothy MacTague and Mr. Paul Pieri will be presented Thursday, February 21st, at Alumni Hall in The Bell Schoolhouse, 25 Drift Road, Head of Westport, at 8 p.m.

Gray's Gristmill is located on an Adamsville industrial site reputed to have been in use since 1675. It began operating under its present name over 100 years ago. Recently it was purchased by Ralph Guild of New York, who has extensively restored the mill, pond, and "sluiceway".

For the past several years miller Tim MacTague has been in charge of the restoration and operation of the mill. He considers himself apprentice to John Hart, former miller and mill owner.

Paul Pieri is a former teacher turned farmer, who raises the white-capped flint corn that is processed at the mill.

Indian pudding will be served at the close of the program.

This program is being sponsored by the Westport Historical Society, Inc. Admission is $1.00 for Society members, and $1.50 for non-members. Reservations are requested due to space limitations. You may make a reservation by calling 636-6011 by February 17th.

Please join us for this unique presentation.

Olde Hampshire Unfinished Pine

The Most Popular Cabinet in New England!

THE CLASSIC raised panel doors are framed with solid white pine . . .a favorite in America for over 200 years.
These cabinets are assembled . . .no difficult parts to fit together . . . and they're easy to install too. You can finish them with stain, paint, clear varnish or antique finish. Pine takes all finishes well.
And because you do the finishing you pay less for the cabinets.
Olde Hampshire Unfinished Pine cabinets are often used in budget kitchens but national magazines have featured them in some of the most imaginative kitchens.

You choose the finish, the hardware (hinges, knobs, handles and catches) and the sizes to fit your project. A wide variety of sizes are available for all rooms in your home.
